What Happens When Women Wake Up?

Presented by author and psychotherapist
Patricia Fero, LMSW

What Happens When Women Wake Up? is the newest book from author and therapist Patricia Fero. The book is a wake-up call for women to move into their authentic power by learning how they have fallen asleep under the spell of patriarchy. She sees the collective feminine as the key ingredient in planetary awakening. Patricia feels it is imperative that we wake up now, as each of us carries an important piece that contributes to this awakening.

Patricia knows in her bones that “now is the time, and we are the women.”
